

Please do not abandon the requirements that limit how many media outlets one company can have in a market. This is ESSENTIAL to freedom of the press and an informed public. The reason this has not been a hot topic among Americans is because they have not heard about it. Media conglomerates do not want to air this story because it is against their best interests. A perfect example of why we need to maintain current limits on media ownership.